

FLEURIE

Terre de Granite

Produced on homogeneous soils of granite with large crystals, the Fleurie appellation is often referred to as "Reine du Beaujolais". The wines are characterized by great finesse and elegance, with aromas of iris and violets.

The Madonna hill overlooks the appellation and offers a breathtaking panorama of the vineyard.

Cultivated area: 871ha

Recognized as AOP in 1936

Average altitude: 340 meters

Deep and expressive red color.

Intense nose of generous notes of candied fruit exalting beautiful and intense aromas of perfectly ripe fruit.

Full and rich on the palate, warm, backed by melted and silky tannins, very good length in the mouth with a structure without excess.

Grapes picked at full maturity

Harvested by hand exclusively

Granite terroir

Manual pruning known as in a cup

Grape variety 100% black Gamay with white juice

Farm poultry with cream and morels

Rabbit terrine with hazelnuts

Sautéed figs and Fleurie granita

Zucchini and goat cheese pie

Served between 15 et 17°C,

Potential aging between 4 and 5 years in the cellar

